The Riverside Tamale Festival Saturday, April 21, 2018, White Park Riverside, CA

Spanish Town Heritage Foundation presents the 6th Annual Riverside Tamale Festival on Saturday, April 21, 2018, in Riverside's White Park, from 11 am to 7 pm. Opening ceremonies will begin at 11:45 a.m. Highlights of the festival include food and gift vendors, music, dance, entertainment, children's activities and an historical exhibit on the Trujillo Adobe and La Placita de Los Trujillos. Special performances by Grammy awarded La Santa Cecilia and Tierra! Admission is a $15 online, children under 12 free. (Day of event tickets will $20) Come and enjoy the food, music, dancing, art and celebrate our communal culture.

The Riverside Tamale Festival is part of a journey toward a restored and rehabilitated Trujillo Adobe--a structure of historical significance to all of Inland Southern California--with a vision that includes not only the restoration of the adobe, but ultimately the re-establishment of La Placita, "Spanish Town," as an old town Riverside.

2018 Festival Highlights: Local artists and Gramming winning performers, community non-profits, various contests; and Chancla toss contest; Zona de Ninos (Kids Zone) including story times. Back again this year, the Family Connections Booth, come learn about the Trujillo Adobe and the ten original families from the Inland Empire, find out if your related to the original settlers. Two beer gardens fearturing Micro/Macro beers, and added this year, margaritas.
